Dr. Friedrich Glum

Dear Dr. Glum:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to thank you for your letter of 8 February regarding the solution of your problem. He is very glad to hear that suitable arrangements have been made.

You mentioned in your letter that you would like to talk with the Director some time when you are in Washington. In view of his very heavy schedule, I suggest that you call his secretary, Miss [REDACTED], beforehand to set up an appointment. She may be reached on Executive [REDACTED] extension [REDACTED].

Sincerely yours,

[REDACTED]

Assistant to the Director

Dear Mr. Muller:

I got your letter of Febr. 4. Thank you very much for your help. In the mean time a compromise could be found. I can teach at Emerson College here during the spring term and have a seminar at Johns Hopkins. This gives me the possibility to stay some days a week in Washington and see something of the work of the Federal Government and the Congress. I should appreciate very much to call you ^{on} some time in Wash^{25X1A} DC, if you had time. My address is [REDACTED] ^{25X1A}

With my best regards

Sincerely yours

Mr. Friedrich Egan
